Event Overview

Agents in the Wild: What's New + What's Next kicks off our “Keeping up with Copilot” series by diving into the latest in AI agents on GitHub. See how Copilot's newest features are helping real developers and teams move faster, tackle bigger projects, and build more securely without getting slowed down by complexity.

Join us for a practical, fast-paced look at what's possible when human creativity and AI team up to build the future, together.

We look forward to seeing you there 🚀

Best,

The GitHub Team
